The University

Western Washington University is a public, comprehensive university with a national reputation for academic excellence, dedicated to providing the highest quality undergraduate education in the Pacific Northwest. A Western education offers students the opportunity to develop active learning skills to last a lifetime and serves them well in today's pluralistic, changing and highly technical world.

While large enough to offer students a range of top quality programs, Western remains small enough to focus its resources on the needs of individual students as they build career skills on the sound foundation of the arts, humanities, sciences and professional studies.

The campus

Western's main campus on the western slope of Sehome Hill has been called a "jewel of a university." It offers a magic blend of art and nature with views of Bellingham Bay and the San Juan Islands to the west and a panoramic vista of the city of Bellingham. Some campus locations also offer scenic views of Mount Baker and Washington's Cascade Range to the east and the Canadian Cascades to the north. The campus is just minutes by bus from downtown Bellingham as well as the city's historic Fairhaven district, and its proximity to both locations also puts it within easy walking distance. Western's main campus and the adjacent Sehome Hill Nature Reserve encompass 216 acres near the heart of Bellingham. Counting Lakewood Recreation Center and Boathouse, the Shannon Point Marine Center in Anacortes, and the Viqueen Lodge, Western properties occupy 300 acres.

Students

Nearly 15,000 students call Western home during each academic year, starting in late September and continuing through June. A third of Western's students reside in oncampus residence halls. Western offers something for every student, with more than 100 cultural, academic, recreational, religious, social and political clubs and organizations as well as multiple venues for the performing arts and extensive opportunities for community service.

Academic programs and degrees

Western is organized into a graduate school and seven undergraduate colleges: the College of Business and Economics, the College of Fine and Performing Arts, Fairhaven College, the College of Humanities and Social Sciences, Huxley College of the Environment, the College of Sciences and Technology, and Woodring College of Education.

GENERAL INFORMATION

WWU ATHLETICS

In 2010-11, approximately 300 students are participating in 15 varsity sports at Western, seven for men and nine for women. Western has been an official member of NCAA Division II since September 1998.

In 2009-10, Western placed sixth among 310 NCAA Division II schools in the Sports Director's Cup national all-sports standings, the best finish in school history. The Vikings were 10th in 2008-09. Western has had seven straight Top 50 finishes and been among the Top 100 in each of its first 12 seasons as a NCAA II member.

Western has won six straight Division II national titles in women's rowing from 2005 to 2010. The Vikings are the first NCAA school in any division to achieve that distinction.

Besides winning the national title in women's rowing, Western placed fourth at nationals in men's cross country, eighth in women's cross country, 14th in women's indoor track, 16th in men's indoor track and 18th in both men's and women's outdoor track. Both the men's and women's basketball teams got to regionals, the men losing in overtime in the semifinals to the eventual national champion. The women's golf squad placed seventh at the Super West Regional as did the men's golf team at the Central/West Super Regional.

The 2009 NCAA graduation rate study showed that 68 percent of Western student-athletes entering school from 1998 to 2001 earned their degree within six years, a rate the same as that of the full student body. This is a rate 13 percentage points higher than the average for NCAA Division II schools nationally and 17 points higher than the average for the rest of the schools in the Great Northwest Athletic Conference.

Using the NCAA Academic Success Rate, which includes all freshman student-athletes from the fall of 2001 and also accounts for student-athletes who transfer into or out of the institution, Western posted an 83 percent success rate, compared to the NCAA II national number of 70 percent. The average ASR of the nine GNAC schools was 74 percent.

In 2009-10, Western won its sixth Great Northwest Athletic Conference All-Sports championship, taking league titles in men's cross country, men's outdoor track and men's golf. The Vikings also took the Northwest Collegiate Rowing Conference championship.

Western placed second nationally in volleyball in 2007, and reached the national semifinals in men's basketball in 2001 and women's basketball in 2000.

Western ranks among the top 15 in women's basketball victories among all four-year schools. The Vikings had the fourth-longest league volleyball winning streak in NCAA II of 57 from 2002-04. Western, which won the NAIA national softball title in 1998, had a 38-game victory string in women's soccer from 1982-84.

FACILITIES

Athletic facilities on Western's campus include Sam Carver Gymnasium, a softball complex, artificial-surfaced Viking Field, and a six-lane all-weather rubberized track.

Carver Gym, completed in 1962, has five basketball courts, including a main gym which seats 2,534 spectators. It also has a swimming pool, handball courts, the Parberry Strength and Fitness Center, and convertible facilities for volleyball, which includes a SportCourt.

Men's and women's soccer matches are held at Orca Field (FieldTurf) on the campus of Whatcom Community College. Track meets take place at Bellingham's Civic Stadium, built in 1961, with an addition in 1971 and a complete renovation in 2006. It has covered seating for 4,000 spectators and lights for night use. The track is an eightlane, 400-meter oval.

Softball contests take place at a facility completed in 1999 with seating for 500.

Rowing events are held on Lake Samish. Cross country meets takes place at Lake Padden Park, and golf competition at the Bellingham Golf and Country Club.

2010-11 PREVIEW

VIKINGS LOOK TO RELOAD AFTER REACHING WEST REGIONAL SEMIFINALS

BELLINGHAM, Wash. — With the entire starting lineup gone, it would be easy to think the cupboard was bare for the Western Washington University men's basketball team in 2010-11.

Far from it.

The Vikings were 26-6 last season, placing second in the Great Northwest Athletic Conference with a 12-4 mark. They were the host and top seed in the West Regional of the NCAA Division II National Tournament, reaching the semifinals before losing 76-75 in overtime to eventual national champion Cal Poly Pomona.

Sure, six of the top seven scorers completed their eligibility, but that understates the level of talent returning, a group that has been fortified by a strong group of transfers.

"With such a large turnover, there's going to be an adjustment time," said Western coach Brad Jackson. "Right now, we're just looking at combinations, seeing who will emerge. We want to utilize the early part of the season to be sure everybody learns what we're doing and how we play.

"It's a hard-working group, they come to practice focused every day, and they're very receptive to teaching."

Jackson enters his 26th season, the longest tenure of any coach in any sport in school history, with a career record of 471-263. His victory total ranks No.18 among active NCAA II coaches, and his winning percentage is the best in Western history.

Four players with extensive experience return, led by the team's lone senior, forward Michael Duty. Duty had been named MVP of the Disney Classic and was leading Western in scoring when he severely broke his finger in the fourth game of last season, eventually being granted a medical redshirt. He averaged 12.8 points and 5.8 rebounds in those four games after contributing 10.3 points and 4.5 rebounds as a junior.

"We're glad Michael has been able to come back from his injury," Jackson said. "He'll be a major factor for us. He's a strong, physical guy who can play inside and outside, and he offers a lot of leadership as well."

The other three players with the most experience are junior forward Rory Blanche, junior guard Cameron Severson and sophomore center Chris Mitchell.

Blanche was Western's top scoring reserve last season, averaging 8.5 points and 2.9 rebounds while ranking fifth in the GNAC in field-goal percentage at 58.1 percent. He averaged 11.3 points over the last 12 games, scoring in double-figures in nine of them.

Severson, who has been bothered by a foot injury, averaged 4.4 points, having 14 points and seven rebounds in a regionally televised victory over Central Washington. Mitchell averaged 3.3 points and 2.9 rebounds, and showed a deft outside touch for a 6-foot-9 player, hitting six of his last 10 3-point attempts on the season.

Another key returnee from last year's squad is junior forward Zach Henifin, who redshirted last season. Henifin averaged 12.4 points and 5.7 rebounds for Whatcom CC in 2007-08, and was named team MVP in both seasons there.

Completing the list of returnees are junior guard Anthony Wiederkehr, redshirt freshman guard Dane Thorpe and sophomore guard Tyler Grosz. Wiederkehr averaged 2.9 points in 16 games in 2008-09 prior to sitting out last season, Grosz saw action in six games last year.

Four transfers could have an immediate impact. The lone transfer from a four-year school is sophomore guard John Allen (Brier/Mount-lake Terrace), who saw action in 13 games for NCAA I Washington State last season.

Three transfers come from the JUCO ranks. Junior guard Rico Wilkins, who averaged 15.8 points and was the NWAACC Eastern Region MVP for Yakima Valley CC in 2008-09; junior guard Shedrick Nelson, who averaged 14.3 points and 6.6 rebounds at Highline CC in 2008-09; and junior center Dan Young, who averaged 7.9 points and team-highs of 7.4 rebounds and 1.4 blocks last season for Highline.

Completing the roster are two freshmen, forward Bryce McPhee and guard Derek Dickerson. McPhee averaged 13.7 points and 6.9 rebounds as a senior, earning first-team all-Seamount League honors at Mount Rainier High School. Dickerson, whose father, Tim, was an all-district guard for Western in the late 1980s and who still holds many Viking 3-point shooting records, was a first-team Class 2A all-state selection and the state tournament MVP as a senior at Squalicum High in Bellingham, averaging 18.9 points while hitting 101 treys.

Sophomore guard Richard Woodworth, who averaged 2.0 points in 26 games, will redshirt this year after undergoing wrist surgery during the summer. Sophomore forward Paul Jones is not eligible this season after transferring from Whatcom CC where he was a first-team NWAACC all-Northern Region pick in 2009-10.

"We have a nice balance of incoming transfers and freshmen," said Jackson. "They have differing skill sets, which gives us balance not just in terms of classes, but the talents they bring to the table. I think the individual strengths they have will impact us in a positive way."

Western begins GNAC play Dec. 2, when the Vikings host Montana State Billings.

"Our conference has proven each year to be one of premier DII leagues in the country," Jackson said. "If you look at what our teams do in regional and national play, you can't question that. And this year, it might be as strong top-to-bottom as it's been in quite a while. Teams are continuing to get better, with outstanding coaching and really good athletes."

HALL OF FAME

NATIONAL HALL OF FAME

Six Western coaches and athletes are members of the NAIA National Hall of Fame.

SAM CARVER

Known as the "Father of Western Athletics," Sam Carver was a standout student-athlete at the school in 1912 and 1913. Shortly after, he became coach of nearly every Western sport.

Carver coached six sports at Western, including baseball for 10 years, basketball for 19 years, football for 14 years, golf for 22 years, tennis for 18 years and track & field for 22 years. He also was director of athletics for 18 years.

The current home of Viking basketball is named for Carver, who was inducted in 1957.

HERBERT HEARSEY

Western's faculty athletic representative for 25 years, Herb Hearsey was instrumental in developing the bulk of the eligibility rules used by the NAIA.

Hearsey helped write the constitution and bylaws of the Evergreen Conference which was formed in 1948. He also was secretary of the NAIA National Eligibility Committee.

A professor of library science and associate director of Wilson Library during his 34 years at Western, Hearsey was inducted in 1975.

Soccer/Football

Coach

One of just three women's basketball coaches in the NAIA to reach 400 career victories, Lynda Goodrich continues to leave her mark on athletics as an administrator.

A 1966 graduate of Western, Goodrich returned to the school to coach basketball in 1971. Over the next 19 seasons, she compiled a 411-125 record, guiding the Vikings to five national tournaments.

Currently Western's director of athletics, Goodrich was inducted in 1986.

CHARLES LAPPENBUSCH

The developer of the "straight-line philosophy," Charles Lappenbusch was a member of Western's physical education department for 42 years.

Lappenbusch was athletic director for 30 years and coached five sports. His most notable coaching achievements came in football, where he guided the 1938 squad to a 7-0-0 record, the only undefeated, untied season in the team's history.

Lappenbusch, who had an overall record of 81-64-17 in football, was inducted in 1961.

JO METZGER

A forward on the women's basketball team from 1977-81, Jo Metzger is the only Western athlete in the NAIA Hall of Fame, being inducted in 1992.

Metzger was one of only 30 finalists for the Wade Trophy, which goes to the nation's top female collegiate basketball player, in both 1980 and 1981. She also received first-team AIAW Division II All-America honors in 1981.

Metzger was a four-time league and region allstar. She held 15 school records at the end of her career, including the career scoring mark of 1,990 points.

Metzger is the only Western player to lead the team in scoring four times and is the only Viking ranked among the school's Top 10 career leaders in points, rebounds, assists, steals and blocked shots.

CHUCK RANDALL

As the Western men's coach for 18 seasons, Chuck Randall compiled an impressive 275-186 record.

Randall's teams had winning records in his first 11 seasons, but the best campaign was 1971-72, when the Vikings went 26-4 and reached the quarterfinals of the NAIA National Tournament. He also coached the baseball team to two national appearances.

Randall invented the first breakaway rim and founded the first basketball camp in the western United States.

Called the "Coaches' Coach" because so many of his players became coaches themselves, Randall was inducted in 1985.

SAM CARVER GYMNASIUM HOME OF THE VIKINGS

Dedicated on March 30, 1962, Sam Carver Gymnasium has been the home of Western volleyball since 1974.

Named for Sanford E. Carver, a NAIA Hall of Famer who was Western's first director of athletics and the chairman of the physical education department from 1914-55, Carver Gym was an addition to the existing physical education facility. It added 54,233 square feet of floor space at a cost of $1.04 million. The most significant addition was the present main gymnasium.

The facility opened in time for the 1961-62 basketball season, although it wasn't named for Carver until the dedication ceremony the following spring. Dr. James L. Jarrett, then Western's president, and Dr. E.V. Pullias, a professor at the University of Southern California, were the main speakers at the gathering.

Basketball has been the primary event at Carver Gym. The Vikings have racked up an impressive record at Carver Gym, posting a 473-153 (.756) record over 48 seasons.

Western was a much different place when Carver Gym was built. It was a state college, not a university, and the enrollment was a third of the nearly 15,000 it is today. Many of the buildings that dot the campus landscape today were either brand new or still many years away from construction.

Perhaps the most unique feature of Carver Gym was that it wasn't built on solid ground. It was constructed on a bog, meaning pilings had to be put in the ground before the foundation could be laid. Money spent on the pilings meant a few other plans had to be delayed. The brick that was supposed to be put on the outer walls was never added, and the final set of bleachers wasn't installed until 1971. There have been numerous renovations and additions to the building over the last two decades.

Since opening, Carver Gym has been host to a number of events. Acts like Jefferson Airplane, Duke Ellington, Simon & Garfunkel, the Tubes, Pat Paulsen, the Smothers Brothers and Ike & Tina Turner have played in the facility. There also have been NBA pre-season games, the Harlem Globetrotters, national basketball teams from Australia, Korea, Japan and Taiwan, and the junior national women's team from the Soviet Union. The U.S. and Canadian national volleyball teams played a match at Carver Gym, and Vice President Hubert Humphrey spoke in the building.
